The past decade has been marked by violence, turmoil and confusion. There have been times when children have lost faith in authority. There have been times when adults have lost faith in the younger generation. There have been times when the future seemed dim and hopeless to many. How can we look forward to a new millennium when things seem to be falling apart around us?

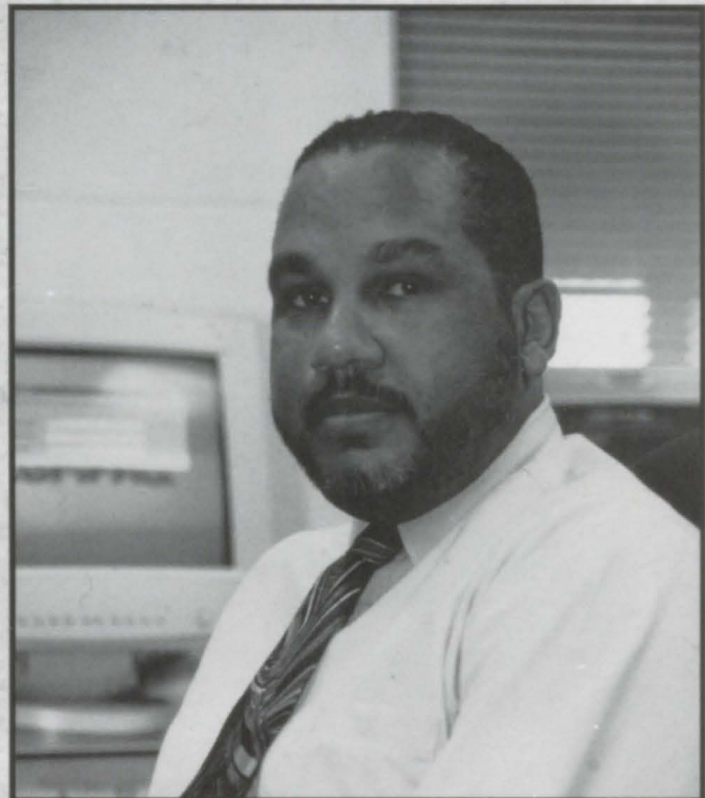

Yet, as I look at the last Science High School graduating class of the 20th Century, I am ready to greet the new century with confidence. I am certain that this graduating class has the courage, the intelligence and the strength to prevail in a society where obstacles can appear at every corner. I am certain because I have watched you grow in the past four years; I have observed you as you moved persistently forward. As freshmen, you already had taken the "road less traveled" when you chose to attend a school that would test the limits of your abilities. You continued to persevere in the face of adversity, in the wake of setbacks. When it was easier to indulge in leisure activities, you chose to roll up your sleeves and get the job done. When it was easier to be self-serving and self-indulgent, you volunteered your services for the good of your family, your school and your community. When it was easier to give in to the temptations that easily snare other young people, you maintained your ideals and your dignity.

As your principal, I am proud of the young adults you have become. I would like to feel that we at Science High School played a part in this transition from your childhood to adulthood. I hope you will remain part of our family and our community, even if only in spirit.

Knowing you has been a pleasure. As you leave Science High School, I look forward to the next millennium because I know it's in good hands—your hands.

I want to start with Abdul, since freshman year,
 You've been there for me when I needed you there.
 Next, to Michelle, a good friend whom I can trust,
 To make a path for Eboni, do what you must.
 To Jauhara, a good friend, who's very loud,
 May your dreams come true, and always stay proud.
 To my sister Shakiyyah, I wish you could have stayed.
 You're my friend for life, and I love you more each day.
 Nija & Valenthia, I didn't forget you.
 Keep your sense of humor and always stay true.
 To my cheerleaders, I'll miss you, stay #1.
 And the basketball team, you've made these years fun.
 Especially Brian, my player for life,
 Good luck in the future and keep your game tight.
 To my cousin Raschid, you're like family to me,
 I love you, and I want you to be all that you can be.
 Marie, stay strong, don't let people hold you down,
 Be proud of who you are, keep your feet on the ground.
 To Khaatim, our leader, I know you will succeed,
 As long as you keep the faith and believe.
 Estelle, Jennie, Rashi, Deena, and Emanuel,
 We've made it through these years, I hope you all do well.
 To everyone I forgot, I love you all, too.
 And to the Class of '99, good luck in all you do.

To all those that doubt me, to all those that hate me, to those that give me grades I don't deserve. You all are the one's I shout out because it was because of you all that I am still here. Peace to all those living the humble life, striving to end abuses amongst ourselves and in the world.

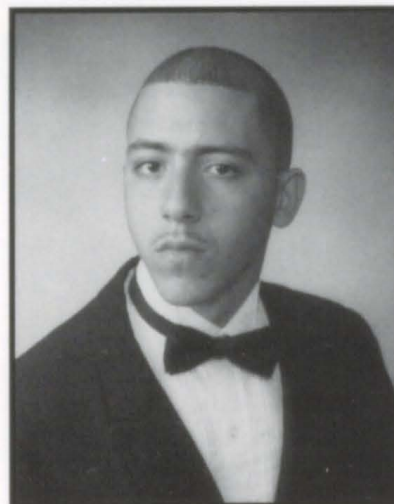

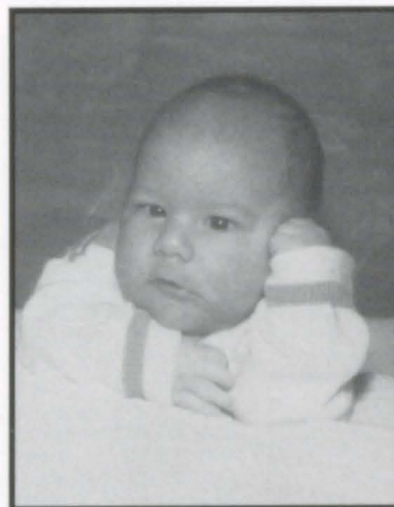

"Together we stand... Divided we fall."

Peace to all those seniors who keep it real. If you do, I know. If you don't I still know. Much love to all my dogs: Big Roc, Smokey Jameal, the whole baseball squad, and everybody else who has known me.

First and foremost I would like to give thanks to the Creator because without him I would not have made it this far. I would also like to thank my father, my aunt, and my stepmother who has taught me how to hold my own and to stand for what I believe in. To my cousin Terence, you know I love you like a brother and would always be by your side no matter what. Last but not least, I would like to thank all of my brothers and sisters (Sede, Maisha, Tyrone, Michelle, and Michael).

To all of my Friends, Nikki, Yvette, Renee, Kadian, and Adjoa thanks for all of the support, laughs and good times. My high school years would not have been the same without yall.

To Shenita and Lisa, there aren't enough words to describe how I feel about yall. We've been through so much together; it feels like I've known yall all my life. Nothing or nobody will ever come between us. We all know that true friends come a dime a dozen and luckily, I found two. Stay True! I LOVE YALL!

Last but certainly not least, I would like to thank my high school sweetheart, Jamil Newsome. We've been together for four fun long years and I can't stand the thought of us being apart when we go to college because without you there's no me. You are so special and there isn't anybody who can compare to you. In short, it is obvious that we are meant to be.

It's gotta be destiny.

GOOD LUCK C/O 99!

First , I would like to thank God for always guiding me through my life. Mommy and Daddy thanks for my life and your love. Susan, Tricia, Trina, Sharonda, thanks for the advice and for having my back. My other half Taheerah, without you there would be no me. You're always there when I need you. Love ya. My best friend Lisa, we had our problems, but our friendship is a bond too strong to break. Love ya too. Leema, Sherry, Juliette, Jua, Olu, Cristian, Estelle, Renee, Yvette, Chanta, Kadian; even though we may go our separate ways, I will always remember you. Mr. Bristol and Mrs. Brooks (my aunt) thanks for the talks. I will be on time from now on Mr. Willis. Thanks for the rides home Mrs. White. You inspire me Mrs. Jackson. To the track team, keep filling that trophy case. Everyone I forgot, sorry, but I have limited space. Everyone that was victim to my sarcasm, that's just me. Don't take it personal. To the Class of '99, the last and best class of the millennium, don't let anyone keep you from living your dreams. We made it. Thank God its over.

First and foremost, I would like to dedicate my success in High School to my family. Mom, thanks for all the support when I needed it most. Dad, thanks for the extra "push" I needed in order to get started on my road to success. Anthony, thanks for listening and being there. Science was my second home... I came to science a curious boy, confused and naïve. Upon graduation, I'm leaving a young man, ready to seek a career in college. From wasting time in the back of class to buggin' out in the cafeteria, believe me, it's going to be missed. As for my fellow classmates: Manny (football Friday?), Ruben (keep tryin'), JuJo (start studying), Biz (stop studying), Julianne (stop playin' my game), Leshay (sorry!), Hubert (why soccer?), Marie (conceited), Gwen (too Perky), Big-D (all star running back), Julio (easy job or what?), Cordero (my 2nd brother), Sturat (getting' all the girls), Aaron (dumb jock), Nuno (my Accord's better), and my partner in crime throughout H.S., Kev. Thanx, too Karpe...

Best fortune to the class of '99...

I would like to give honor to God who is the head of my life. I'd like to thank my parents for constantly pushing me, for their inspiration, encouragement, and for molding me into the young lady I've become. To my sister, Ginger and my brother, George—we always stuck together like glue, don't let anyone ever tear us apart. To my friends who were there through thick and thin: NC, EP, AD, SW, CL, SB, TB, NF, AV, YG, MJ, and ED—may we always remember each other and keep in touch. To Chris, I'll never forget you, much love. To all my cool peoples—keep your head up and stay strong. To all those who ever hated on me don't be mad because I'm beautiful inside and out. I would like to start off by thanking everyone that has helped me get where I am today. Those friends who always support me, no matter what I'm doing or how stupid it is, and also those "friends" whose attitudes have helped make me a stronger person. The teachers and administrators who put up with all my crap for the past four years; especially those who I borrowed stuff from for months and months, the whole time making no plans to return it. By the way I promise I'll return the stuff by the end of next week.

I would like to give special thanks to: Brenda Cunas, Christina, Malisa Elliot, Maria DaSilva, Juliane Navarrete, Amy Ortiz, Julissa Ortiz, Kathleen Reany, Laira Reid, Alexis Reid, Valerie Rodriguez, Melvin Silva, Donna Washington, Dana West, Sheri Williams, and all the other people I'm sure I forgot right now. That doesn't mean I don't love you, it's just that I am not exactly fully awake right now.

I also want to say a special hello to RASP! You guys sound great! Hi to: Raul, Ruy, Tom, Rafael, Malisa, and how could I forget Richard. Hope you guys make it big.

I wish everyone the best of luck in the future, I hope all your dreams come true, and you all find happiness in your lives. I have thoroughly enjoyed my years at Science and sincerely thank all who were a part of that joy.

Natasha Gholston

First I want to think God for bringing me this far, without him none of this would have been possible.

To my parents, sisters, and relatives thanks for all of your continuous support, advice and patience. Each one of you have, in some way, helped me through my high school years.

To my very best friend, Juliette, there are too many words and too little space to describe our friendship. We have stood by each other through the thick and the thin. I can never forget your laugh, smile and definitely not your unusual sense of humor! You are just like a sister to me and I will never forget you or stop being your friend. I Love You.

Also, to two of my 'real' friends, Nija and Kimika, I've had good laughs with you both. Kim, we have always had something or someone to talk about. Nija, you were always there for me to talk to. (I'm still waiting for that $1000 you owe me!) We've shared some good times here at Science and I will miss you both.

Congratulations to all my Dookies: Valenthia, Michelle, Khasima, and Jauhara. We finally made it!

Finally, thanks to that special person in my life, with whom I've shared my deepest thoughts and feelings. I am glad to have known you and will remember you always.

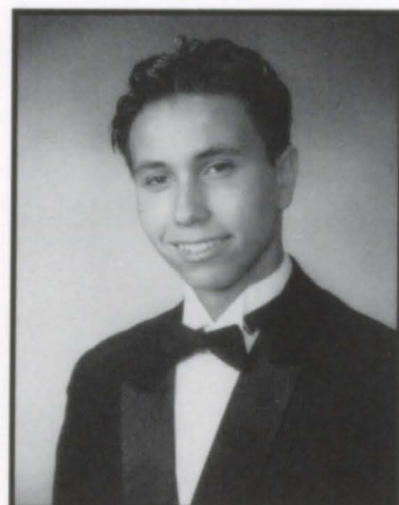

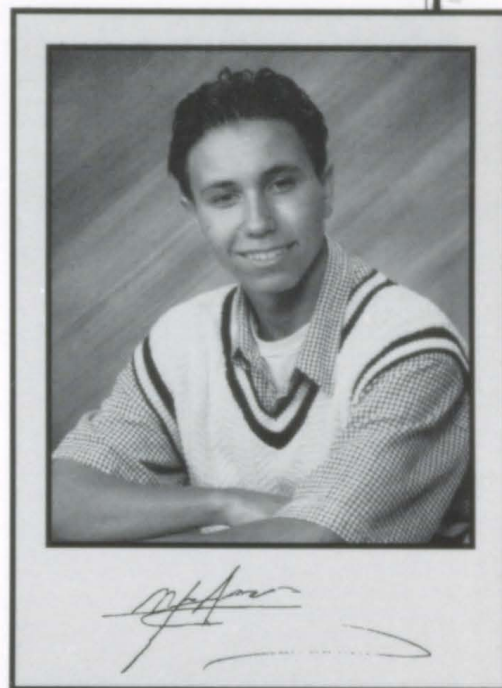

Natasha B Gholston

First and foremost, I would like to thank and praise God, who gave me the will and strength that I needed to survive in the world of education. Most importantly I would like to thank my parents for supporting me all these years even during hardships, but we managed to overcome them. Without them I would not have made it. I also dedicate this year to my baby Sonia, my brother Patrick, and Anthony. It's my last year at Science and it has been a great four years of my life. The staff and students are nice and they make you feel good. I would like to give shoutouts to Nuno, who I'll see later on in the future, Adriana, Beatriz Agrelo, Mr. Gray, Mr. Ballin, Rashid, Tashid, Stuart, Harris, my godfather Kiefer and to the rest of class of 1999. It has finally come the time for us to embark on the beginning of the rest of our lives. Science High has been a preparation, and without the love and support of my friends and family I could not have made it through as the person that I am today. I would like to thank my mom and dad for being my support system throughout life, and my younger brothers and sisters for giving me another reason to achieve success. Now for all my friends who have made my years at Science as memorable as they were; to my best friend, Shakirah for always listening to me and understanding, my road dog Rashad for always making me laugh, Olusayo, Silifat, Dana, old lady Martina, my buddy Tasheed, Racshid, little Angie, the mac Rocco, crazy JuJo, Malisa, Melvin, Kevin, and the rest of my friends. Before I commend any human on this earth, I first have to say, "I love you God." Even though I may have doubted your presence in the past, I give you the most respect a human can. It is because of you I strive for perfection everyday. Now that I got that off my chest, I have to give love to my ex-girlfriend who died, Erica Martinez. Even though we were enemies for a short period of time before you died, I still think about you everyday. I love you girl. I hope you can hear me talking to you in my daily prayers. Now come my parents... Dad, I love you. If you didn't have the flaws that you do, who knows? Maybe I would have followed your path? At least something good came out your bad habits. Thank you for keeping me in a straight line of obedience and not giving me any space for error. Thanks for keeping me straight without abusing me physically or mentally. So many fathers find it easy to hit their kids, but you never put a hand on your conceited son. Hey you taught me:) Remember dad, for every step you take towards God he will take two toward you. The pilgrimage to paradise isn't as far at it seems. Thank you mom for being so strong. I know you could have run from dad's problem and left him to live your life better, but you understood how important it is for an urban adolescent to have a father figure. Don't worry your reward is at the end of your destiny. In my eyes heaven's door is wide open for you. Love to my cousin Pedro for bringing the man out in me. Because of your silliness, I act more like an adult and try to teach you the fundamentals of life like a father figure. Maybe you don't follow what I say, but you make it through the day the hard way. One love to my cousin Patty who kept her footprints so organized. Just thinking about the future gets me so happy. You know what we are going to do? We are going to buy all those hypocrites a house far away from us so we don't have to deal with them anymore. We are the originators. Now before I get to my schoolmates, I have to show love to the ones who didn't make it through four rounds of Science High. One love Gigolo Joe (Josias). You had my back while I was too busy looking forward. Because of you, I made it home when I should have been going to the hospital. I'll always remember that. One love to Ricky. It's because of you, the true emcee came out of me. We are going to do these commercial cats with our poisonous darts. "Snatch their ice give it to the projects for the rob of the night." And last, Anthony. I know you're mad at me son, but one love to you. Yo, I didn't say it, that cat with the tight jeans just wanted to see two friends beef. He isn't half the man he used to be- have you seen him lately? Now comes my classmates. One love to: Jameel, Rocco, Kevin, Tasheed the fake Jay Z (look I'm lyrical), and Raschid. Now to the girls. One love to: Enchantia, Alisa, Taheerah, Adjoa, Kadian, Camille, Nicole, Margaret, Olusayo, Sophia, Angie, Jenny, Renee, Julianne, Morayma, Rose, Jennifer, Ericka Payne, Melody, Ivonne (Sugar), Betty, Babs Bunny, and the lunch ladies (gimme my food!) Now before I finish my love speech I have to get something off my chest. One love to all the girls I had a crush on through my four years of school and didn't notice it Enchantia, Julianne, Morayma, Olu, Angie, Nicole, Taherrah, Alisa, Melody, Ericka Payne, Laida, and Sally. I know that you knew, but just kept it silent. One love to Marilee, my AOL mistress. One love to all the girls who had crushes on me. I know most of y'all because your friends told me you had a crush on me. Now to my friends outside of school. One love to STOUT, ESPI, SCAR, PUPPET, and CHEESE. One love to my girlfriend Stephanie, that treats me so well. It's because of you I wake up every day with a smile. And believe me when your in pain I'm in pain too. Boobie they are no words that can explain my feelings for you. I love you so much. You are my soul controller. No one ever made me feel the way you made me feel. I LOVE YOU. And last but not least, to all the graduates of 1999, love to everyone. I hope all of you become successful.

Amy Ortiz

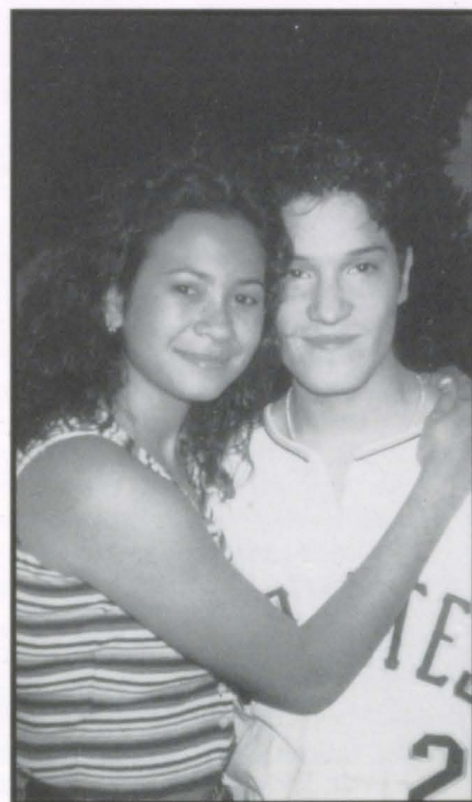

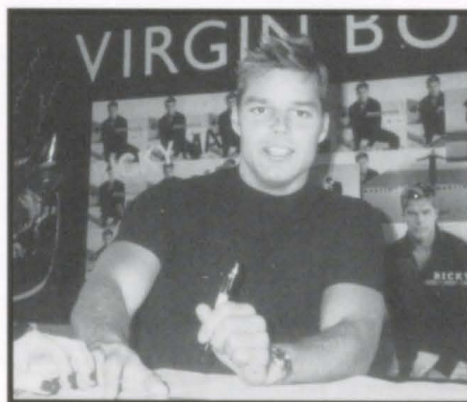

I want to give thanks to God and my family for helping me through hard times. I also want to give thanks to those who have kept it real with me these years.

Jessi-When I'm alone, walking amidst my shadows I come across light. That light is you! It's been 11 years and going on strong. You are embedded in my heart. Mom, Hedy, and Sharon-I love you guys, we've gone through hard times, but we can do anything if we stick together. I'll make you proud! To the rest of my people: Kathy, Lucy, Kadain, Margaret, Enchantita, Rashid, Richard, Laira, Melvin, Suzy, Silifat, Dana, Danny R., Sherri "Red", Hubert, Donna, Linda, Jessi P., Yary, Olu, Juddy, Tina, and last but not at all least Johnny-I will always have a special place for you, you sexy thang!!

I love you and you will always be with me wherever I go.
P.S. Keep smiling guys!!!

NDSF: thanks for guiding me. Special love to Nila, you DO know what you're talking about. Marvin, RIP and guide and protect Richard for me. "First a teacher, then a coach, and finally a friend." Cunha, you have influenced most of what I do. I am what I am, I do what I do, I have accomplished because of you. (For the most part).

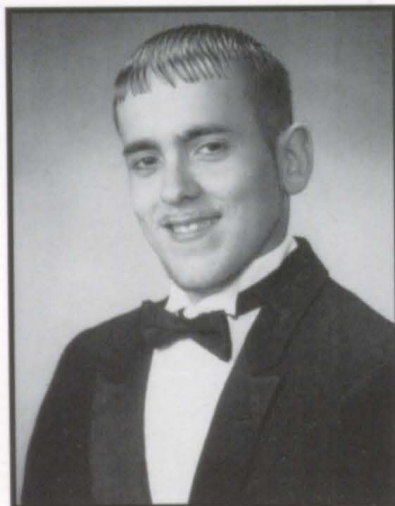

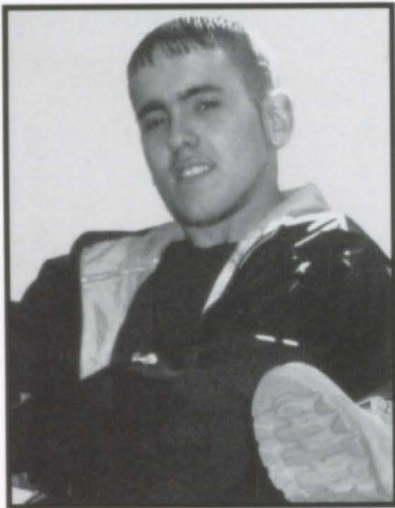

To my immediate family, thanks for being there. I LOVE YOU. To my trips' D & Nikki, my twin Manny & the Cuz Connection. WHIMSICAL. To my fellow athletes, teammates, and coaches. 123TOGETHER, Sandog, we're going to get in trouble with Hand one day! Trickster, you're my sis & my girl. See you at the top. Joa [Tuti ☺] We've been through thick and thin. We must continue to change, mature, and become individuals. Lucy, keep getting those autographs. Remember ladies: ONE LOVE. Abba-dul and his crew, my sons and daughters, my quote-unquote friends, my "friends" throughout my four years, my High School Sweetheart, my Freshman Crush, Be (read in spanish), FORGET ME NOT.

All of you (Class of 1999) who have disagreed with me, talked about me, and disliked me. I thank you because you taught me how to handle controversy. Which in turn has made me the individual I am now. Thank You..... See you all at the top... Mory

High Expectation Is The Key To Everything

During the times of difficulties, I learned to stay strong. Now that I am at appoint of test and trials, I learn to put my faith in God, and my family members. When time gets rough, I called on my spiritual Father. I can't begin to fathom where I might have been without His Grace and mercy. Although I grew up without a mother in South Korea, God had provided me with another mother, Virginia L. Bullock. From the moment I came to America, my mom has raised me to be the women that I am now. "Mom, You has been my love, and my guide." My Two sisters: Lakashia, and Tenneil. They have been my strong influence to continue my higher education. My thanks to my Grandparents, Dad, Aunts, Uncles, Cousins, and God-sisters, love you so much. All of my Christ Church families thank you for your supports. Dana, Sharon.S, Brandi, Laira, Kimika, Will, Shanell, Julianne, Enchantia, Melvin, U.B students @ NJIT, UHS 7:20A.M C++, and the Class Of 1999.
